

An artist is creative, working in a wide range of disciplines including painting, writing, poetry, music, performance art and more. Gloversville offers a variety of opportunities for artists, as well as venues to explore for those appreciating the craft.

Discover the arts and entertainment in Gloversville, and join us with sharing your imagination and creativity.

AUTHORS

Writing is an art form as it involves creativity, imagination, and expression. Authors and up and coming novelists seeking assistance with their craft can join the “Write On!” group, an open creative writing workshop for teens (ages 13 and up) and adults, offered through the Gloversville Public Library at 58 E. Fulton St. To learn more, call (518) 725-2819.

"Art evokes the mystery without which the world would not exist."

- Rene Magritte

"Creativity is contagious, pass it on."

- Albert Einstein

DISCOVER - IMAGINE - CREATE

DOWNTOWN
GLOVERSVILLE

Collaborated in partnership with

FULTON COUNTY CENTER FOR REGIONAL GROWTH

Gloversville:
PLACE FOCUSED.
PEOPLE LED.

PERFORMANCE ART

Glove Theatre, 42 N. Main St., entertains audiences throughout the year with music performances, community theater, comedy, holiday shows and more. To learn how to get involved with the Glove Theatre, visit the website theglovetheatre.com or email theglovetheatre@gmail.com.

Dorn Space, 99 N. Main St., is a creative haven for performing arts and promotes innovative material by original artists. A family-friendly entertainment venue, upcoming events can be found at <https://dornspace.tv>. For more information, call (838) 202-4425 or email dornspace@gmail.com.

VISUAL ART

Micropolis Cooperative Inc. hosts a gallery that is located at 30 N. Main St. and celebrates artists that work in a wide range of media and styles, including jewelry, paintings, drawings, photographs, fiber art, mixed media, glass, digital art, pottery, woodland collages, baskets, and fine arts card. The gallery also hosts several "Meet the Artists Receptions" throughout the year. To learn more, visit www.facebook.com/MicropolisGallery

Glove Cities Arts Alliance promotes artists, as well as hosts the annual Art Walk with displays in downtown storefronts and windows. The organization is partnering with Kearney Development Group to bring an art gallery to Glove Cities Loft, 52 Church St., in 2025. Email glovecitiesarts@gmail.com or visit www.facebook.com/glovecitiesarts for information.

MUSIC MAKERS

Gloversville Civic Band consists of musicians from the area and performs concerts in the summer at Trail Station Park (127 E. State. St. is the location for inclement weather). Visit facebook.com/GloversvilleBand.

Gloversville Community Music hosts summer concerts, as well as a music school at 40 N. Main St. For information, email gloversvilleCM@gmail.com.

